Rabbi's Message ~ Dov Gottesfeld

Shalom to all:

After the opening blessings and Ma-Nishtana in the Haggadah it reads: "We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and the L-rd, our G-d, took us out from there with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm. If the Holy One, blessed be He, had not taken our fathers out of Egypt, then we, our children and our children's children would have remained enslaved to Pharaoh in Egypt. Even if all of us were wise, all of us understanding, all of us knowing the Torah, we would still be obligated to discuss the exodus from Egypt; and everyone who discusses the exodus from Egypt at length is praiseworthy." The Haggadah proceeds to quote a few rabbis from centuries ago. Rabbi Eleazar ben Azaryah said: "I am like a man of seventy years old, yet I did not succeed in proving that the exodus from Egypt must be mentioned at night- until Ben Zoma explained it: "It is said, 'That you may remember the day you left Egypt all the days of your life;' now 'the days of your life' refers to the days, [and the additional word]

'all' indicates the inclusion of the nights!" The sages, however, said: "'All the days of your life'" refers to the present-day world [in which a particular person is living]. Which means to me, that dealing with the exodus from Egypt is a stepping stone to engage the listener in contemporary issues, not only about Passover, but on "all [issues in] the days of your life."

The Haggadah doesn't mention who the listeners are or should be. Yet, I think it primarily refers to young children because of what transpired – the children recited the four questions – and what follows is a discussion about the characteristics of "the Four Children." It reads: "Blessed is the Omnipresent One, blessed be He! Blessed is He who gave the Torah to His people Israel, blessed be He!" The Torah speaks of four children: One is wise, one is wicked, one is simple, and one does not know how to ask. One should ask then, why did the writers of the Haggadah find it necessary to classify the children into four different categories?

Looking at the whole opening (Macro), and reading between the lines (Micro) provide us with the incredible representation of cleverness, wisdom, and painstaking, which the Haggadah writers took to subliminally prepare future generations to keep the story of the Haggadah told. They made sure that the storyteller takes "all the time of his life" to educate the younger generation in the morals and ethics of the Torah. The lack of that knowledge could possibly lead to "slavery" (in all its forms). The line: "In the beginning our fathers served idols..." can be equated with: "In the beginning G-d created..." And of course there was "chaos" (in all its forms) until the Torah was given to the Israelites at mount Sinai.

The writers of the Haggadah also made sure that the story tellers must be aware that people are different in nature, learning style, and comprehension, and that the story teller needs to not only be prepared to answer all questions by becoming knowledgeable, but "Teach the youngster according to his/her way of learning – Auditory, visually or kinesthetically."

That approach would enable the following saying to be fulfilled: "For from Zion shall go forth the Torah, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem."

Happy and Kosher Passover.

President's Column ~ Suzanne Levy

Suzanne Levy

Changes. I hear people say they don't like change. I think what they mean is they don't like sudden, unexpected change. I would agree if it is an unpleasant change. However, I look at change as an opportunity. Maybe it is to learn something new, maybe it is to be around new friends, or maybe it is just about personal growth. I have always been a "glass half full" kind of person, so I always look at changes in a positive light.

A few things have been changing at Temple Beth El. We have sold off the back lot (though we are still waiting for escrow to close), we are fixing up the facility (new curtains, also look for the other article about Serve Santa Maria on May 4), and we are continually looking for new (dare I say younger?) leadership. Our general membership meeting is on April 14th (at 3:00 pm) where we will elect our 2019-2020 board. Most of our board members have served over 10, 20, even 30 years. We are always ready for a change. If you think you may be interested (though it is no commitment), please give me a call so I can tell you what board leadership entails. My phone is 805-934-0477.

Change can be positive and good. My least favorite phrase is "because we have always done it this way." I urge you to embrace the change and support it. You may be surprised at how much you end up liking it.

Donations

From Jaffa Café (second Tuesdays TBE benefit)

Serve Santa Maria May 4

Serve Santa Maria was started by Pastor Carl Nielson of the Trinity Lutheran Church to allow people of all faiths to serve others through large scale acts of kindness. This may include cleaning graffiti, fixing an elderly person's home, painting playgrounds, fixing fences, and much more. This year they will be serving Temple Beth El by helping us to remove all the ivy and invasive shrubbery in front of the temple. The need for this removal (besides improving the looks) was suggested by the Santa Maria Police as a safety measure.

We would love for you to participate. If you want to be in the weeds, digging and removing, bring your own shovel. We would also like baked goods and beverages (water, juice, coffee) to be available to the 30-40 people we expect to be working. Simply show up at the temple at 9 am, Saturday, May 4, with a shovel or food (or just yourself) and we will put you to work in the yard, helping our visitors, or maybe in the library or classrooms where things always need cleaning and sorting.

Suzanne

Brotherhood

The TBE Brotherhood will meet on Sunday, April 7th, 8:30 am, at the temple. First we will enjoy our usual fabulous breakfast of lox and bagels, eggs, juice, muffins and coffee. Breakfast will be followed by great conversation, which focuses primarily on current events, especially involving Israel. We look forward to having you join us. All Jewish men (and women) are invited to attend.

Michael LeCover

Sisterhood

Our April meeting will take place on Tuesday April 9th, 6:00 pm, at the Jaffa Café on South Broadway. Now that this favorite restaurant also supports our temple we will be meeting here regularly on the second Tuesday of the month. We benefit twice: we have a great meal, and on that day the restaurant gives the temple 15% of money spent. We just have to be sure to write TBE on the order form. The food is always good, the prices moderate, and the atmosphere casual where reservations are not necessary and drop-ins are encouraged. Bring your friends. See you there.

TBE Fundraisers

Here are 4 ways you can support Temple Beth El simply by shopping or eating!

1. Jaffa Café in Santa Maria is donating 15% for all food purchased all day and evening, 10:30am to 8pm, on the 2nd Tuesday of every month. You can dine in or take out. Either way, TBE benefits!
All you have to do is write "TBE" on your menu form. Jaffa Cafe will save all of TBE's receipts and donate 15% to TBE.

2. Buy Scrip (gift cards) from Mike Sachs to be used in local businesses and restaurants. The Temple receives up to 5% from these gift cards.

3. If you shop on Amazon, sign up to support Temple Beth El Santa Maria at smile.amazon.com (under Accounts & Lists go to Your AmazonSmile). The Temple gets 1/2% of every dollar you spend. Double dip and use Amazon Scrip as well!

4. Purchase a Tree in Israel in memory or honor of a loved one.

Trees are $18.00. Temple Beth El makes money from each tree purchased. Contact Suzanne Levy to buy a tree or for more information.

Dear Friends:

Hello again. Are you trying to figure out how to spend Mother's Day this year? Tired of fighting the crowds at restaurants? I have the perfect solution! Come to Temple Beth El's Mother's Day Event. It starts with lunch at the temple prepared by the temple ladies, followed by the PCPA production of the Tony Award winning musical, "A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder". It is a musical comedy about a very gentle manly man who murders the eight people ahead of him in line for a "title". The actor playing the murderer also plays all the parts of the people he murders!!! The play played for 4 years on Broadway and won more Tonys than any other play the year it debuted. The pre-show luncheon begins at 11:30 AM at Temple Beth El located at 1501 E. Alvin St. in Santa Maria. At 1 PM we'll head over to PCPA located at 800 S. College Dr. on the Allan Hancock campus. The show starts at 1:30. I have reserved 50 of the best seats in the house. The cost of this wonderful event is $45, which includes the lunch and the show. Call me at (805) 478-1463 to choose your seats. I have attached a flyer for you about the event.

Shalom to all:

While preparing for Passover, I came across the following table in:

https://aschmann.net/BibleChronology/The_Exodus.html . The table is a complete chronology of the Exodus from Egypt. It paints a complete picture in words and dates. I trust that you'll - perhaps for the first time - be able to visualize and follow the entire route of the Exodus.

B'Shalom.

Rabbi Dov.
